

GOVERNOR BEFORE THE GRAND JURY

Solons Who Offer to Tell
All Are Turned Down

WITNESS ROOM CROWDED

With Corporation Representatives
Who Will Tell of Hold Ups.

Columbus, May 3.—Legislative corruption for years past is being investigated by the present grand jury according to reports from the jury room. All witnesses are sworn to keep secret the nature of their testimony. But enough hints have been dropped to make certain that alleged bribery for several sessions past will be investigated.

As a result many legislators who felt secure yesterday are today whistling to keep up courage. The famous Elson telephone merger bill of last session is said to be one matter of special interest to the jury. Sufficient evidence is already in the hands of the grand jury to warrant the immediate indictment of at least one legislator.

Columbus, O., May 3.—Several assemblymen went to Prosecutor Turner and Attorney General Hogan and offered to tell the grand jury about bribery methods in the house and senate, but their offers were not accepted. These proposals were taken as indication of a panic among the solons and a desire on the part of some to get in early for an immunity bath.

Before the grand jury there appeared a number of prominent officials, including Governor Harmon. The witness room was crowded with detectives, lobbyists and corporation representatives. The latter purpose to tell how they were held up or how efforts were made to have them "fork over" money to get bills through committees and then passed or to have the reverse process brought about.

Judge Blair of Portsmouth, who conducted the recent campaign which resulted in the disfranchisement of 1,800 voters in Adams county for election frauds, was another witness. A bill is pending in the assembly to legislate Blair out of his present judicial district and out of a place on the bench. Rumors have been current of wrongdoing in connection with the measure.

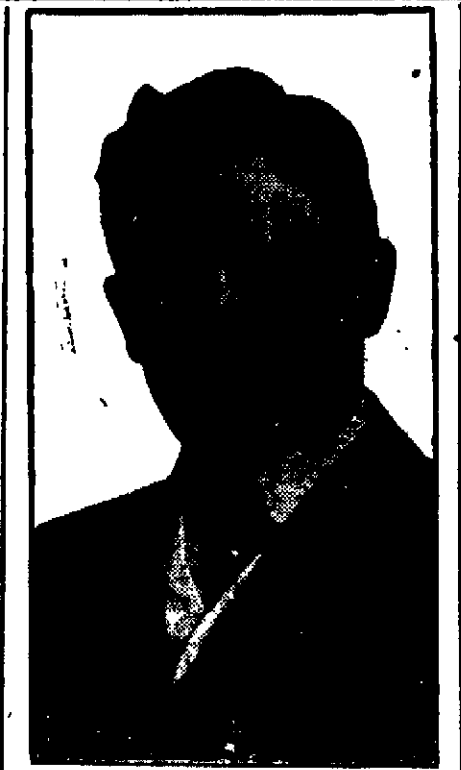

In the house every member of the calendar committee, against which much suspicion has been directed, resigned except Dr. George B. Nye, who Saturday had detectives arrested for offering him bribes.

The members who resigned were Langdon, Russell, Evans of Stark, Calvey, Irving of Preble and Gusweiler.

Burns Appears on Scene.
Detective Burns, head of the organization which has ferreted out the corruption, was at the courthouse for some time. This is the most corrupt assembly he has ever been called upon to investigate, he told reporters.

It developed when Governor Harmon opened an envelope supposed to contain the bribe money which Nye says he received, that the bills were not the marked ones which the detectives say they paid to Nye. The amount, $200, was correct, however. It also has developed that while Nye received the money about three weeks ago, he did not turn it over to Speaker Vining until last Thursday.

A significant indication of the unrest in the assembly came when the senate, which has been reactionary and has blocked almost every effort of Governor Harmon to secure progressive legislation, put through two of Harmon's pet bills—the measure for a central board of control for state institutions and the bill providing for the direct nomination of United States senators according to the Oregon plan. The reactionary senators are betraying a sudden anxiety to be good.

The hoodie gangs were bipartisan. In getting the hoodie in exchange for votes no distinction was made between Democrats and Republicans, because their votes all looked alike.

Prosecutor Turner has stenographic records of a conversation that occurred in Detective Harrison's room in the Chittenden hotel relative to the exchange of "business" between house and senate crooks. A senator was telling Harrison how they worked with certain house members, and the Burns dictagraph transmitted all he said to Prosecutor Turner's stenographer.

"That fellow is perfectly safe," said the senator to Detective Harrison, referring to a house member. "He works with us all the time and looks after matters for us in the house, and we look after things for him in the senate." The senator is a Republican and the house member a Democrat.

Another senator, whom Harrison says he paid $200 to for working for a certain bill, spoke as follows into the dictagraph:

Sollicita For Friends.
"There's a couple of other members who always work and vote with me on all bills, and we split three ways all money we receive. I'd like to get some money from you for them."

In the house there is a member who posed as a distributor of hoodie, claiming that there were between 20

WORST OF THEIR KIND.

Columbus, O., May 3.—Detective W. J. Burns, in discussing the graft disclosures in the Ohio legislature, said:
"Of all the bribery investigations with which I have been connected the evidence in this is the most conclusive, the most unquestionable, and was gotten up by the most up-to-date methods. The Ohio legislators are the most persistent grafters I ever saw in my life, and would take everything. From all I could learn, they've been grafting ever since they came to Columbus in January."

and 30 members who worked with him and looked to him for their pay. The detectives say he is a liar and that he is so crooked that he would not play fair even with his fellow crooks. They say he would take money for a large number of legislators and then keep most of it for himself.

The story goes that in the senate the different hoodie gangs had working agreements by which they divided the lobbyists for their prey.

Governor Appeals to Langdon.
"After all, we are all Buckeyes, and when there is something wrong in the old state, party lines must be cast aside and the honor of the old state upheld." This is the way Governor Harmon prefaced an interview with Representative Lawrence K. Langdon, Republican floor leader of the house.

Langdon had been called to the governor's office to discuss the developments in the legislative hoodie cases. The governor asked the Republican floor leader for his assistance in clearing up the situation.

"I agree with you, governor," said Langdon. "The mask of respectability ought to be torn off every man who is selling his honor, influence and vote in this general assembly. I can assure you that I will give you all the assistance in my power to see that the truth comes out."

Murder Mystery Cleared.
Fowler, Ind., May 3.—Mangled and partially decomposed, a body, supposed to be that of Joseph Kemper, a farmhand, was unearthed on the farm of John Poole by a searching party headed by Poole's son, Emory, and a warrant was issued for the arrest of the elder Poole on the charge of murdering Kemper. Several years ago, it was reported to the authorities, Charles Work and Charles Mack, employed by Poole, disappeared mysteriously. Further search of the farm is to be made on the theory that their bodies may be found.

THREE GOOD BILLS PASS ON TUESDAY

Oregon Plan Bill, Central
Board and School
Book Bill

THROUGH BOTH HOUSES

Central Board Bill Conference
Agreed Upon—House Passes
Girls' Industrial Bill.

Columbus, O., May 3.—Popular election of United States senators under the Oregon plan is assured to Ohio voters by the passage in the senate of the Wyman bill, which has already passed the house and now goes to the governor. The vote was 18 to 15. It required votes of three Republicans—Tod of Mahoning, MacDonald of Ashtabula and Watkins of Licking—to pass the bill. Four Democrats—Cetone and Cahill of the Dayton district, Dore of Seneca and Huffman of Butler—voted against the bill.

Stockwell and Green spoke for the bill and Doster, Deaton of Champaign and Deaton of Lucas spoke against the bill. Those who voted for the bill were Dean, Dittmer, Finnefrock, Frazier, Gray, Green, Haas, Hudson, Krause, MacDonald, McGuire, McKee, Reynolds, Shaffer, Stockwell, Tod of Mahoning, Watkins and Yount. Those who voted against it were Andrews, Bader, Cahill, Cetone, Deaton of Champaign, Deaton of Lucas, Doster, Dore, Holdren, Huffman, Johnson, Keller, Kuhl, Purinton and Todd of Franklin.

SCHOOL BOOK BILL PASSED SENATE.
Charges Made of Collusion Between Anti-Saloon League and the Book Trust.
Columbus, May 3.—Five minutes after Senator Yount's bill, limiting school book prices in Ohio to the minimum price paid by any other state and prohibiting changes in textbooks for five years was passed by the senate yesterday, Yount charged that he had positive information that Anti-Saloon League officials and Book Trust representatives were in league to fight the measure in the house.

Superintendent Wayne B. Wheeler, of the league, has frequently declared Yount's charges and insinuations are without foundation, but Yount declared he would take up the gauntlet that had been thrown down and might ask immediate action in the house under suspension of the rules.

The senator from Darke has frequently proclaimed there is an illicit alliance to defeat the bill and that the same combination sent the uniform text book act on the rocks in house and senate.

Yount says a Columbus man was sitting in the gallery next to an official high in the Anti-Saloon league and that the Columbus man brought off Yount this remark from the official:

"Well, it got through the senate, but it will never get through the house."

Two votes were cast against the measure, by Deaton, of Cambridge, and Todd of Franklin, 27 votes being recorded for it.

CENTRAL BOARD BILL CONFERENCE AGREEMENT.

Columbus, O., May 3.—Both branches of the general assembly concurred in a conference report on the Russell bill to provide a central board of control for state institutions. The central board bill exempts the Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans' home at Xenia from the management of the bipartisan board of four members.

The Lima state hospital, pending completion, also is exempted.

In the house Mr. Greeves introduced a bill making a penitentiary sentence mandatory in bribery cases involving members of the assembly.

FULTON'S BILL AGAINST TECHNICAL ERRORS IN COURTS IS PASSED.

Columbus, May 3.—By a vote of 19 to 10 Representative Fulton's bill, designed to reduce reversals on technical errors in court proceedings, passed the senate yesterday.

The measure provides that a reviewing court must disregard errors in the trial of a civil case if, in his opinion, substantial justice has been done. The measure is endorsed by the State Bar association.

GIRLS' INDUSTRIAL BILL PASSED THE HOUSE.

Columbus, O., May 3.—Charges that the reform administration at the Girls' Industrial school at Delaware maintains a strong room and that a girl placed there had at one time died from the effects of her treatment were made in the house by Representative Smith of Butler county, during the consideration of the Stambaugh bill providing for a woman superintendent of the girls' home. The bill passed by a fair margin after a heated debate. It is strongly urged by the governor and will probably go through the senate.

WRECK IS EXPLAINED

Teachers' Special Ran Into Section Where Track Partially Repaired. Trenton, N. J., May 3.—As a result of the wreck at Martins Creek there is said to be a possibility of a serious shakeup in the management of the Belvidere division of the Pennsylvania railroad. It is understood that the real cause of the disaster was a fault on the part of the proper officials of this company to announce the approach of the special train. Workmen repairing the tracks where the accident occurred are said to have been wholly unaware of the presence of the special in their vicinity, and employees declare that the rails were actually being taken up when the engine bore down upon them. Some of the workmen, it is said, even had narrow escapes themselves from injury.

Dietz and Family On Trial.

Hayward, Wis., May 3.—John Dietz, the defender of Camper dam, and his wife and son were placed on trial jointly charged with the murder of Deputy Sheriff Hart. Dietz was his own lawyer, with Elmer Dietz, who helped her parents in their battle against 150 deputies, at the press table reporting the trial for some Wisconsin papers, and with the balance of the family as spectators.

Hyde Resigns His Office.

New York, May 3.—Charles H. Hyde resigned as city chamberlain a few hours after he was taken into custody on an indictment for receiving a bribe. Mr. Hyde made a statement in which he said he was quitting his job in order not to embarrass Mayor Gaynor. District Attorney Charles S. Whitman got the news at his home and expressed surprise.

Brook Easy For Moran.

Canton, O., May 3.—Owen Moran, the English lightweight, won the decision over Phil Brook of Cleveland in a 10-round bout here. Moran fought brilliantly all the way, while Brook put up the worst fight of his career.

M'NAMARA'S FINGER PRINTS AS EVIDENCE

Are Sent East at Request of Detective Burns.

Los Angeles, Cal., May 3.—The supervisors of Los Angeles county set aside $10,000 on the requisition of District Attorney J. D. Fredericks, to be used in prosecuting the three men now prisoners in the county jail charged with dynamiting.

Finger prints made by J. B. McNamara at the request of the district attorney were sent east. What the purpose is the prosecutor declined to say. It is surmised finger prints were found after some of the dynamiting jobs in the east, in which Ortie E. McManigal says he and McNamara participated. The district attorney admitted the request for them came from Burns.

Leo M. Rappaport, general counsel of the structural iron workers, held a long conference with John J. McNamara in the county jail. He refused to go into details about the conference, but expressed an opinion that a motion for a change of venue would not be pressed. "I am confident the men will receive a fair trial in this city," he remarked.

That Clarence Darrow will come to Los Angeles when needed is another assertion the Indianapolis attorney made. "There has never been any discussion between Mr. Darrow and the labor leaders as to the fee he will receive for his work," Rappaport added.

J. E. Timmons, organizer for the iron workers here, received a telegram from Seattle stating that the Seattle labor council had voted $50,000 for the defense of the McNamaras.

Commenting on the alignment of the labor unions on one side and the National Erectors' association on the other, Rappaport said:

"Labor is not on trial only as the National Erectors' association tries to place it on trial. Of course when that is done, labor will fight back. This case is simply a big criminal trial, and labor's stand is taken because it has been thrown out by the prosecution that not only these three men, but labor as well, is on the defensive."

SECOND VENIRE IN SUTLEY MURDER CASE REPORTED FOR DUTY

JURY TO DATE.
L. A. Tinkle, farmer, Madison township.
C. S. McKinney, farmer, Newton township.
Frank Pound, farm hand, Newton township.
C. B. Jones, farmer, Kirkersville.

The Quincy Sutley case, adjourned Monday because the special venire of 36 names was exhausted without securing more than one juror, was resumed again Wednesday morning.

Judge Samuel H. Nicholas of Co-shooton arrived on the morning train and at 9:20 a. m. court was opened by Bill Legge.

The crowd in the court room and corridors of the temple of justice consisted almost entirely of the members of the special venire of 150 names ordered called by the court. Only a few spectators were present when court opened.

The defendant was in court promptly at 9 o'clock and seemed in good spirits, and while seated within the bar rail conversed pleasantly and cheerfully with a number of his friends who were in the court room.

Sheriff Slabaugh stated that he had succeeded in securing service on most of the 150 men drawn to take the test as to their qualifications to serve as jurors.

Clerk of Courts Ed Larson called the names, the jurors standing in their places and being sworn.

R. P. Ford, city, explained to the court that he had just recovered from an operation for appendicitis and was still weak from the illness. The court excused him at once, stating that it was not safe to accept as a juror one who is apparently in poor health.

W. B. Bell, C. W. Jewell, J. H. Cree, J. K. Uffner, L. M. Shipley, Harvey Snelling, Fred E. Speer, R. P. Ford were excused for illness or other causes regarded by the court as good excuses for exemption from jury duty.

After the panel was sworn Judge Nichols took this occasion to state his displeasure with the evident efforts of members of the first panel to escape jury duty by taking refuge behind alleged prejudices against capital punishment. He stated that it was his candid opinion that the opposition to capital punishment was not as general in Licking county as the answer given Monday would seem to indicate. Judge Nichols warned the members of this special panel that if information came to him that this was offered as an excuse merely to escape jury service, the next grand jury would be called.

HAD THREE DISCHARGES.

Sylvester H. Beadle, city, stated to the court that he had a discharge from the United States army and two from the national guard and claimed exemption from jury duty. Upon the suggestion of the prosecutor he was excused. Cyrus G. Nevins, city, claimed exemption because of membership on the election board.

upon to investigate the matter and some of the veniremen would find himself charged with perjury. Instead of being an honorable citizen sitting as a juror.

The state's attorneys stated to the court that it was evident that the excused veniremen as they passed out of the court room and mingled with the other veniremen yet to be examined, resulted in a "contamination" of prospective jurors. The court instructed the bailiff to see that none of the excused veniremen mingled with those yet to be examined.

J. F. Stone answered to F. B. Stone's name but was excused as not being the man called.

D. D. Hamilton, farmer, Newton township, excused because of disbelief in capital punishment.

C. S. McKinney, Newton township, farmer, not opposed to death penalty; had formed an opinion regarding defendant's guilt, but could set it aside. Passed by state. Passed peremptorily by both sides, accepted and sworn. He was the second juror of the panel.

Arthur McMullen, subpoenaed as juror, objected to be by state because of error in name; excused.

Frank Pound, Newton township, farm hand; not opposed to death penalty for punishment of murder; no opinion; passed by state. Examined by Jones for defense; had no active interest in wet and dry matter. Did not know defendant. Was served by telephone. Passed by defense. Passed peremptorily by both sides and accepted as the third juror.

L. D. Dixon, gas line employee, Burlington township; opposed to capital punishment; excused.

FISHING.

Judge Nicholas remarked during the examination of veniremen that it reminded him of a day's fishing. He stated that one might fish all day without a bite and yet the fisherman realized that at any moment his fondest hopes might be realized.

"It differs in one way," said the court, "one can't change the bait. The question must be the same."

A. L. Wince, Burlington township, tool dresser in gas fields. Not opposed to capital punishment. Had formed an opinion but not as to guilt of this defendant. Examined by the court. Could not lay aside opinion. Excused.

J. W. Riley, Newton township, farmer; opposed to capital punishment but could give impartial hearing of evidence and verdict in this case. No opinion as to Sutley's guilt or innocence; passed by state. Examined by Jones: Is a brother of Auditor C. L. Riley. Signed the wet and dry petition; fact that riots grew out of raids on alleged saloons might prejudice him in case. Challenged for cause by defense. Examined by court. Challenge overruled; further examination by Jones. Indictment prejudiced venireman's mind. Challenge renewed. Examined by Miller: Had no prejudice against this particular defendant. State objected to challenge. Court further examined the venireman and overruled the challenge. Passed on peremptory challenge by defense.

W. M. Nelbarger, Burlington township, farmer; not opposed to capital punishment. No opinion; suffered from rheumatism; excused by the court.

J. T. Rinehart, was subpoenaed as juror. Excused because of error in name.

W. E. McClurg, Burlington township, farmer, opposed to capital punishment; excused.

E. T. Bell, Burlington township, grocer, opposed to capital punishment; excused.

Arthur Giffin, Utica, glass cutter; opposed to capital punishment; excused.

James Morehouse, Utica; glass blower; opposed to capital punishment. Excused.

Frank Selvage, Harrison township, plasterer; opposed to capital punishment. Excused.

A. K. Alsford, Utica, bank clerk; opposed to capital punishment. Excused.

Preston Boone, plasterer, Kirkersville; not opposed to capital punishment. No opinion, passed by the state. Worked at polls during wet and dry election. No opinion regarding Sutley. Indictment would raise presumption of guilt of defendant in his mind. Challenge by defense; objection of state. Questioned by court, challenge sustained. Excused.

Merrill Rugg, Outville hardware and implement dealer; not opposed to capital punishment. No opinion. Passed by state. Examined by Jones for defense. Indictment prejudiced venireman against defendant. Would require evidence to remove prejudice. Challenged by defense. Excused.

Eugene Long, Kirkersville, butcher; opposed to capital punishment. Excused.

Lee Spurgeon, Kirkersville, carpenter; opposed to death penalty. Excused.

Charles Law, Kirkersville, farmer, opposed to capital punishment. Excused.

J. B. Jones, Kirkersville, farmer; not opposed to capital punishment; no opinion. Questioned by Jones for defense; passed peremptorily by state and defense. Was the fourth venireman to take his seat.

AMERICAN VICTIM OF THE REBELS

Killed With His Wife in the Interior of Sonora

WILL RESUME FIGHTING

If Peace Agreement is Not Made
Before Thursday Night.

Douglas, Ariz., May 3.—Alarming reports came yesterday from many of the Mexican border towns as to the danger to which Americans will be exposed through the expected renewal of hostilities between the insurgents and Federal troops.

It is again asserted that it is the purpose of the rebels to force American intervention.

The rebels are quoted as having said that if there were no peace agreement by Thursday night of this week they would attack all Mexican border towns. Many American families are leaving Mexico daily.

Reports received here say that an American and his wife, names not known here, have been killed by rebels in the interior of Sonora. United States residents here are advising all their friends in Mexico to get out of that country.

Officials of the Southern Pacific Railroad lines in Mexico arriving here today from the Mexican interior said they had received notice from the rebels advising all Americans to move their families into the United States.

According to a long confidential telegram conditions on the west coast warrant Americans leaving that section, so they are reported to be doing in dispatches from Nogales.

"The armistice is having no ameliorating effect on the west coast," the telegram says, "and Governor Rodo, of Sinaloa, who has commanded a Southern Pacific train to carry troops from Mazatlan to Culiacan, cannot hope to hold more than those two points, and we doubt his ability to do this much longer."

His forces is said to be inadequate to cope with the rebels. This information was sent from Tucson, Ariz., and made no reference to subsequent rumors that Mazatlan had fallen into the hands of rebels. If this be true, the surrendering of the city apparently was made while a portion of Governor Rodo's force was enroute to Culiacan.

THE CITY OF HORROR.
Ten or twelve miles above Johnstown a dam had been built many years before to store water for a canal. With the coming of the railroad the canal had been abandoned, but the dam remained, a harmless enough thing for years, until the South Fork Fishing Club had recently added to the height of the barrier and thus established a great lake. Cautious folk had spoken of the big lake and the weak dam as a menace to all the lower valley of the Conemaugh, but beyond arousing good-natured contempt their warnings had no effect. When a week or more of constant rain had raised the artificial lake to the full height of the dam, and the skimped spillways at the side failed to draw off the excess, the water began to run over the edge of the barrier. Soon the erosion weakened the structure, and then, with a crash that was heard for miles, the dam crumbled and let loose the deluge.

The flood plunged down the narrow valley, already gorged with excessive rains. Eye witnesses said the wall of water was 20 feet in height; others declared it was fully sixty. Whatever its height, the mass advanced faster than the swiftest horse could gallop, its swollen bulk black and flecked with creamy foam. Its lofty front a smother of white froth, it careened from one side of the valley to the other, shearing off the sudden earth as it drove against the green hills. It licked up trees which spun dizzily while like great teetotums and then ground one another to shreds. It overwhelmed houses, and they leaped from their stone foundations as leaves leap in the autumn gale, pitching, tossing and swirling in the spume, crumbling to pieces in the terrific eddies that wrenched their frames apart. Stout steel rails, spiked fast upon solid roadbed, were ripped away and twirled into curly shavings that bore a fantastic resemblance to barley sugar candies. They actually seemed to float; at least they were carried for miles like chips or straws. Man, woman or animal overtaken by the torrent vanished in a breath.—Wm. Inglis in Harper's Weekly.

A Problem of the Spring Bride.

THE honeymoon is over. Angelina and Algernon have settled down in their new home. Their new life has slipped into an orderly routine. Everything seems as it should be, when Algernon, not perhaps without some inward qualmings, announces at breakfast that he has an engagement for the evening and will not be home until late.

How shall Angelina receive this news? Shall she pretend an indifference as to what the engagement may be, or shall she ask point blank what it is? Shall she feel hurt that he wants to spend an evening away from her and shall she bid him goodbye mournfully, perhaps weep a little that he is tired of his home so soon? Or shall she take it as a matter of course that he may want to spend an evening occasionally away from home, and be glad that he is going to have a good time? Just what is the best course for Angelina to pursue?

No, be sure, the bride is not altogether responsible for the way this problem may work out. Much depends also upon the husband. But the wife can by her attitude toward the problem completely wreck all happy solution of it. And so she should give it a little quiet, serious thought.

It is a problem that needs to be looked at in a big way, not just from a little personal viewpoint. It is to be presumed that the man before he married lived an honorable, clean life, a life perhaps of many interests. Because he has married, he will be no less clean and honorable. He will probably be more so. Nor will he wish to cut himself off from all his old associates and interests. Marriage has not replaced these; it has only added more. A wife should not be suspicious or jealous of these old interests. She should appreciate his feeling toward them. She should enjoy his enjoyment in them. The thing for her to do is to make herself and the home more to him than these previous associations are, so that they fall to a secondary place. But she should not try forcibly to cut them off altogether.

Marriage should not mean a restriction that chafes. As soon as a man feels his liberty is being interfered with, that liberty grows more than ever precious to him. When he feels a string is tied to him to prevent him from going out, then he wants to go as he never did before. So that as soon as a wife begins to complain about her husband's going out, or to find fault with him for it, or to insinuate that he is forming bad habits, she is whetting his appetite to go.

She should look on marriage in a bigger way than this. The home should be the happiest place on earth, and love the joy and light of it. And with this home and love as the inspiration of both their lives, there should be perfect freedom for both. The husband should be free to come and go as he pleases. There should be no suspicion, no jealousy. With home and love first in his heart, all other things will take their proper places. But there are other things beside the four walls of a home to a man. And the wise wife will have a big enough vision to see this and sense enough not to misinterpret it.

She too should have her outside interests and then she will not take this narrow view of life after marriage. They both should live the larger life. They both should recognize their responsibilities as members of the community. They should not shut themselves within the four walls of a home and shut the world out, wholly. This may be their dream of bliss at first. But not many men will stand it. It fails. And no woman should. They both owe certain things to the world. They should take upon themselves certain responsibilities. And they should at the start place their home in its right relation to the community about them, and themselves in a right relation to other people and other interests. Then there will be no little heartaches, no misunderstandings, no false excuses, when the husband goes off for an evening on some affair of his own, or the wife attends some meeting or social gathering in which he has no interest. There should be perfect understanding and perfect confidence, but also perfect liberty.

POOLE CONFESSED TO THE MURDER

Fowler, Ind., May 3.—John Poole today confessed to the murder of his farm hand, Kemper, and gave the sheriff full details of the manner in which he chopped the body to pieces with an axe and buried it in the field. He was caught last night at Benssalar and a wild rush of spectators to the Poole farm began today. It is believed the bodies of other farm hands will be found there and the entire farm will be dug up.
Poole was arrested for murdering Joe Kemper, whose mutilated body was found yesterday.

UNCLE WALT

The Poet Philosopher

I am old and gray and spavined and I look like twenty cents, but I have one consolator on now that life is in its tail; I can sit upon a boulder, with my back against the fence, and forget my tribulations when I see a game of ball. Oh I love to see old fellows in the sere and yellow leaf, sitting, happy, on the bleachers, yelling, fifty-seven ways! For the time they have forgot-ten
all about old age's
anxiety, grief as they shrink at the announcement of the home team's foxy plays. I am old and stilt and sweetened and my ringbones bother much, and the undertaker eyes me in proprietary style, but I'd go to see the ball games if I had to use a crutch, and I'll yell like ten hyenas as I wave my ancient towel. You may say I'm full of codfish, that my block is out of plumb, when I make the sad confession that an old man me annoys, if he moons around his dooryard, looking woebsome and slum, when he might be at the ball game, raising thunder with the boys. If you are so beautifully ancient that you do not feel a thrill when the home team's winning hurrahs and a gorgeous lot of fame, you should rent a hearse to haul you to the bonafide on he hill, for it's mighty foolish living
when you're weary of the game

IRON IN THE BLOOD

Is an essential element to health.
When it is insufficient or lacking,
there is a dearth of red blood corpuscles, which causes anaemia and a rundown condition of the entire system,
with consequent bodily weakness.
In order to restore the blood to a healthy condition, iron must be supplied in an easily assimilated form. We guarantee this may be done by Vinol,
our delicious cod liver and iron tonic,
made without oil.
This combination of two world-famed tonics, restores to the blood the elements lacking to make rich, red blood, which imparts strength and vitality to every organ in the body.
J. Edmund Miller of New Haven, Conn., says their little girl had been frail and sickly ever since her birth.
Vinol was recommended and they tried it,
and immediately noticed an improvement in her condition. They continued its use and it built her up, until they cannot recommend it too highly to build up a weakened system.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is clean and wholesome and perfectly harmless. It removes dandruff, strengthens the hair, gives new life to dull or parched hair,

WHY THEY FAIL Most Pile Remedies Was the Cause of Piles

Disagreeable treatment with ointments or suppositories usually fail to remove the cause. Such treatment only moderates the outside effects of the disease and fails to remedy the internal cause. The up-to-date doctors now use internal medicine to free the system of the lower bowel and so remove the disease.
Dr. Leonard's Ham-Roid, the first and only guaranteed internal cure for piles, in the form of tablets—dissolves all kind of piles. Sold by W. A. Ertman & son and druggists everywhere. $1.00 for large bottles, everywhere. Dr.

ENGINEERS SUBMIT PLAN FOR SUBWAYS

Six weeks ago a committee from the South Side Citizens' Association consisting of Messrs. E. M. Baugher, W. J. Fitzgibbon, and M. M. Taylor, engaged Henry Maetzel and Mr.
Simpson, city engineer and assistant,
Columbus, to make a survey and report on the proposition to relieve the railway crossing situation in Newark.
These engineers have just submitted a preliminary report showing that the scheme of track elevation and construction of subways at Second, Third, Fourth, Fifth and Sixth streets is entirely feasible. They estimate the total cost to be $392, 000, of which sum the two railway companies, B. & O. and the Pennsylvania Lines, would pay 65% and the city of Newark 35%, or $137,000.
Messrs. Maetzel and Simpson have engineered a similar proposition in Columbus which is being executed at a cost of a million dollars. The plan submitted for Newark provides for an easy grade for the railway companies and for convenient subways leading from central to South Newark.
The committee will report to a meeting of the Association on May 11th, at which time it is probable the plans will be recommended to the city council for favorable action.
This is the first practical step towards relief for South Newark. By the adoption of this plan or a plan somewhat similar the south side will receive the benefit to which it is entitled and not only the South Side, but all Newark and both of the railway companies will profit thereby.

REPLIES TO PREACHER

Wilson Says Local Option Is Not Political Party Issue.
Trenton, N. J., May 3.—Governor
Wilson is determined that his future political career shall not be embarrassed by the injection of the liquor question if he can help it. Although a believer in local option himself, he does not think it should be injected as an issue into the platform of either of the political parties. The governor has thus expressed himself in a letter to the Rev. Thomas B.
Shannon, superintendent of the Anti-Saloon league of New Jersey.

APPOINTMENT OF SUPERINTENDENT PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Will Be Taken Up at Next Meeting of Board of Education—Business Transacted Last Night

The Board of Education held the first meeting of the month on Tuesday evening with the following members responding to roll call: Messrs. Kibler, Boggs, Broome, Miller and Keller. Several bills were presented and allowed.

The superintendent reported the appointment of Miss Margaret M. Brown as a teacher to take the place of Miss Myrtle Baugher at the North Fourth street building, who has resigned. Miss Anna Copeland was appointed to succeed Miss Vera Lee Jones at the Central school building who has resigned. These appointments were confirmed by the board.

Superintendent Simkins reported that supplementary readers were required for the first, third and fourth grades. The matter was referred to the text book committee with power to act. Truant Officer Handel made his report as truant officer and superintendent of buildings. The report was accepted and filed.

A request was received from a local lodge of colored Knights of Pythias for the use of the High School building on the 18, 19 and 20 of July for a meeting of the grand lodge of the state. The meetings are to be held during the day and the lodge acceded to the request.

The matter of an election of a superintendent for the schools was discussed in an informal way. Mr. Perkins' present term of one year expires with the closing of the schools for the summer vacation. Owing, however, to the absence of Mr. Conrad the matter was postponed until next Tuesday evening when definite action will be taken at the adjourned meeting.

REGULAR MEETING OF CITY COUNCIL
AT GRANVILLE

Granville, May 3.—The regular meeting of the Town Council was held Tuesday night with Messrs. Ferguson, Jones, Partidge, Rusler and Thomas present, with President J. M. Jones in the chair.

Clerk J. D. Evans read the minutes of the meeting of April 4th which were approved as read. The Treasurer's report showed a balance in the treasury of $1794.29.

In the matter of the placing of $3,000 insurance on the new municipal building of Granville, four bids were received for three and five years. The matter was placed in the hands of the clerk, with power to act.

President Jones stated that the ladies of the Civic Improvement society of the village, had arranged to have a "cleaning-up day" on Wednesday, May 17, and that they asked the cooperation of the Village Council.

Council, after discussing the matter, expressed itself as being in hearty accord with the ladies, and agreed to have a number of teams on hand to haul the rubbish away. Street Commissioner Crenno Haines will also be on hand and will give his assistance and advice. All citizens are requested to place all their rubbish in neat piles in the street, in front of their places of residence, and it will be taken care of. The regular finance ordinance was passed under suspension of the rules.

GRANVILLE WILL HAVE A CLEAN-UP DAY

Granville, May 3.—The action of the Civic Improvement society of Granville in inaugurating a Cleaning-up Day in Granville, is in line with the suggestion made by your correspondent on several occasions this spring, and is meeting with the hearty approbation of all the citizens of the place. The members of the Civic Improvement society have set Wednesday, May 17, as cleaning day in Granville, and the Village Council, at its meeting Tuesday night, took action whereby it will lend the society all the assistance in its power. Council will provide a sufficient number of teams to take care of the rubbish and trash that will have to be hauled away on that day. All the people of the village will be given an opportunity to get rid of the rubbish and accumulations of trash about their premises. Civic pride should influence every one sufficiently to keep his yard clean and attractive, but far and beyond this is the necessity of doing so for health's sake. Many cases of illness, and sometimes death itself, can be traced to unsanitary conditions. A pile of molding rubbish, a filthy back yard, an accumulation of trash is often the cause of illness in a family. People with dirty cellars, untidy back yards and lots filled with decaying vegetation often blame Providence for all their ills, while a few hours work, a little energy and a clear understanding of sanitary conditions will eradicate the cause and relieve from Providence the blame due only to neglect of the sufferers themselves. Now, on Wednesday, May 17, it is hoped that every resident of the village will get busy and rake up the dirt from his back yards, clean the cellars, etc., and pile the dirt in the street, in front of their residences, so that the teamsters can haul it away.

Every day just before chiding the house to order Speaker Clark takes out his watch and compares it with the clock opposite him in the hall of the house.

"I have been trying for years to get a timepiece which would keep time," remarked Champ to a friend. "It seems to me that every watch I ever had was either too fast or too slow or something was the matter with it."

But the speaker is never late in calling the house to order. For more than thirty years Henry Neal, the messenger of the speaker's room, has notified the speaker when he should enter the house. If any speaker has failed to be on time it was not Neal's fault.

Introducing the Ohio idea. Senator Pomeroy in the senate and Congressman Goetz in the house propose to advance the Ohio idea in dealing with public funds. They have introduced identical bills for the loan of public money to the highest bidder instead of to chosen banks selected by the secretary of the treasury, as at present. Now the government receives 1 per cent interest. Under the new scheme it is likely to get at least 8 per cent.

Didn't Reach Florida. A group of men were sitting around a table enjoying a course of grapefruit. "I have recently been in the tropical islands," said one, "and I saw great quantities of this luscious food rotting on the ground. There is a tariff duty of $1.50 per box on it, and that is enough to keep much of it from coming to this country. I observe that grapefruit does not appear in the new free list bill. Tariff reform did not reach as far south as Florida."

Mann's Caustic Comment. "This house is organized for economy," remarked Congressman Mann, the minority leader, to a group of Democrats, "and yet the only committee which is now at work is that of public buildings and grounds. It is going about Washington laying the foundation for an expenditure of $100,000,000 for buildings in the city for the government service."

The Illinois man referred to in the investigation that is going on of the rented buildings in Washington, many of which are fire traps and overcrowded. Valuable records are in danger of loss. In fact, it has often been claimed that the United States should have its own buildings in the capital for its use.

Judicious Publicity. General Edwards, chief of the bureau of insular affairs, who has long been associated with President Taft, believes that judicious publicity is a good thing in governmental affairs. He is quite an advertiser of his own bureau and has always been able to maintain an interest in their insular possessions even when they were not cutting each other to pieces or murdering Americans. The general thinks the changes recently made at the executive offices will result in more publicity and a greater advantage to the government.

NO CHANCE FOR TARIFF BILLS

Democrats Know Farmers' Free List Is Lost.

POSSIBLE TO REDUCE DUTIES

Measures Thus Far Presented in the House Tend to Solidify the Republicans—Senator Lodge Again Chairman of the Immigration Committee, a Place He Quit Years Ago.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, May 3.—[Special.]—There may be a question of the sincerity of the Democrats in the method they have adopted in regard to tariff legislation. It must be said in all candor that the Democrats do not believe that there is the slightest possibility of the senate passing or the president signing the farmers' free list bill.

Twenty years ago the Democrats, when they obtained control of the house, passed "popcorn" tariff bills, just as they are now doing. It is true that they won in the next election, but it cannot be said that they won because of those bills.

If the Democrats are not sincere in the present instance the people will know it. Moreover, it is quite possible that a tariff bill moderately reducing present duties could be framed which would receive Republican support in the senate and be passed. But the bills thus far presented tend to solidify the Republican factions.

Back to Immigration.

An interesting phase of the senate-committee assignments is that Senator Lodge resumes the chairmanship of the committee on immigration, which he relinquished many years ago. Lodge has long wanted to be chairman of foreign relations, but Senator Cullom does not seem inclined to let go of that place.

Lodge is one of the men long in service with good committee assignments, but without any good chairmanships. He is now fourth in point of service in the senate, and yet he is not chairman of any important committee. Gallinger is third in service and is chairman of the District of Columbia committee. Nelson is seventh in rank and is chairman of public lands.

Champ's Timepiece.

Every day just before chiding the house to order Speaker Clark takes out his watch and compares it with the clock opposite him in the hall of the house.

"I have been trying for years to get a timepiece which would keep time," remarked Champ to a friend. "It seems to me that every watch I ever had was either too fast or too slow or something was the matter with it."

Daddy's Bedtime

The Man Who Lived in a Tub

"DID you ever hear," asked daddy one evening of Jack and Evelyn, "the story of the man who lived in a tub?"

"No," said Jack. "That was a funny place for a man to live in."

"It was," said daddy. "This man lived many years ago in Greece. He was what is known as a philosopher, which means a wise man who thinks about things. His name was Diogenes. That is a hard name to say, but you will easily learn to pronounce it if you try."

"Diogenes believed in living very simply. He thought it was wrong for people to spend much money on fine clothing, fine houses and good things to eat. To show the people with how little food and clothing and housing they could get along, he used to live in a tub, wear old ragged clothing and eat only very little of the simplest food. One day he was seen walking in the streets with a lighted lantern in his hand. He carried it in front of him, and wherever he went he poked the lantern into corners as though he was looking for something. The people thought he was crazy. When they asked him what he was looking for with a lantern in broad daylight he answered:

"I am looking for an honest man."

"What he meant was that he believed there were so few honest men that one had to look for them with a light, even though the sun was shining. Of course he was mistaken."

"About the time Diogenes lived there was a great king named Alexander. He was one of the greatest fighters the world has ever known, and some day I may tell you some stories about him. He had heard a great deal about Diogenes and how wise he was, so he went to pay a visit to him. He found Diogenes resting in his tub."

"When Alexander came and stood in front of the tub Diogenes hardly lifted his head to look at him. Alexander talked with him a long time and gained much wisdom from the philosopher. The king wished to thank the wise man and show him how much he thought of him by giving him a gift, so he asked Diogenes whether he could do anything for him."

"Yes," said Diogenes, "you can stand aside a little, for you are keeping the sunshine from reaching me." You see, he liked the sunshine very much."

"It made King Alexander laugh to think how little this wise man asked of him, for he was a rich king and could have given many beautiful and valuable things to the philosopher if he had asked for them. But the king thought that Diogenes was the wisest man in the world, as he was himself the greatest king, so he said:

"If I were not Alexander I should wish to be Diogenes."

BUSY SESSION CITY COUNCIL

Considering the fact that city council was in session only a short time Monday night, considerable business was transacted. The street committee reported favorably regarding the request of James F. Irwin, who asked that curbing be placed in front of his property on Hudson avenue, and also favored a number of other improvements. Regarding the matter of providing protection for people living in Texas in times of high water, the committee reported in favor of building two breaker walls of cement on either side of Valandigham street bridge. A copy of the report will be sent to the commissioners. The mayor reported the lectures amounting to $654. The city engineer recommended that four additional caissons be installed, to be made of cement and that each be provided with a manhole. Estimated cost, $5,200. Referred to service committee. A petition from the Newark Trades and Labor Assembly, asking permission to use the Public Square on Labor Day for its celebration and the privilege of selling booths, etc., be given, was granted unanimously. A number of resolutions providing for improvements for the good of the city, were adopted.

(By Campbell Goldrick.)

The Mechanics dropped the opening game of the Newark series to that team yesterday afternoon, in a see-saw game. The weather was too cold to play fast ball, and as a result a small crowd of fans were on hand to witness the defeat of their favorites. Both Ashenfelder and Goshorn were hit freely at all times, and all players had a chance to fill up their averages.

The Mechanics went after Goshorn in the second inning, when Keefe fled out to right and Thomas reached first on Prysock's error. Tanner couldn't connect safely and fouled out to third. Thomas stole and fouled out to third. Thomas, Kunkle then drove a hot one to right that was good for two sacks, scoring Wentz. Ashenfelder went out from Newham to Walker, ending the scoring for the second inning.

In the second inning Prysock got a free pass and went down to second. Kunkle threw to Wentz, who put the ball on him. In "pegging" him, Wentz struck him on the head and dropped the ball. Prysock was rendered unconscious by the accident and was forced to retire from the game. McConnell was sent to second and Stoupe went to right. Newark found Ashenfelder easy in the third and fourth putting three runs over. Blue led off with a single to center and Goshorn followed with a single to right. Baggan followed with a Newham fled to Locke. McConnell smashed out a single to left scoring Blue and Goshorn. The round ended when Rudolph forced McConnell at second. In the fourth Newark put another one over with a single by Walker and a triple by Blue.

The Mechanics were unable to count again until the seventh, when Barton and his crew pounded in three runs before they could be headed. Tanner singled and went to second on Wentz's sacrifice. Kunkle was on the job and pulled off his second double of the game, scoring Tanner. Ashenfelder connected with a line drive to right that was good for two bases, Kunkle counting. Ashenfelder scored on Goshorn's wild heave into the grand stand.

Newark scored one in the eighth with a double by Rudolph and a single by Stoupe. But their big batting rally was pulled off in the ninth. The hopes of the faithful band of rooters was shattered at the start of the inning, when Blue got a life on Locke's wild toss to Tanner. Goshorn got a base on balls. Baggan forced Blue at third and Newham weighed in with a double to right scoring Goshorn. At this point of the game Barton gave Ashenfelder the "bench sign" and Stanley was summoned to stop the slaughter, but there was nothing doing in that line. Stanley was wild and McConnell walked, filling the corners. Stanley made a wild throw scoring Newham. Stanley was taken out of the game and Fox was sent in to relieve him. Stoupe should have been an easy out but Tanner made a bad play on a hard chance and Harold and McConnell scored. Walker grounded out to Tanner. Hamilton again displayed their fighting spirit in their last half of the ninth, but fell one run short of tying up the score. Decker batted for Fox and got a pass and Barton was safe on Walker's error. Gilligan fled out and Keefe smashed a double tied scoring Decker and Locke. This ended the contest for Barton and Thomas were easy at first.

The Mechanics played a fair game showing much improvement over their play of last week. Wentz handled his five hard chances clean, and played a fast game. Jimmy Barton, Locke, Tanner and Kunkle put up a fast article of ball. The outfielders had an easy day, and they handled all their chances without a flaw.

Blue was the star performer for Newark, getting two singles and a triple, besides catching a grand slam.

Fox was in the box just long enough to have a defeat chalked up against him, the score being tied when he went in. Although he was in but a few minutes he had plenty of speed and a good assortment of curves.

Gilligan made his first appearance in Hamilton and made a good impression with the fans, when he got away with a timely single.

Newark's fast game in the field saved them from a "drubbing" for the Mechanics had little trouble in finding Goshorn.

Lancaster, 5; Springfield, 2.
Lancaster, May 2.—Before a small crowd, on account of the cold weather, Springfield was defeated here yesterday by the score of 5 to 2. Johnson of the locals received a split finger by a fast one and had to retire in favor of Lambert. The locals lost on account of poor base running, four men being caught off bags. The feature of the game was the one-handed catch of H. Cain in center on a long fly and a pretty catch of Eppler, who ran over to the left field fence and picked one off the boards. Score:

SHORT SPORT
Milwaukee bunched hits off Webb in the seventh inning, scoring three runs and stepping into third place while Cutting was hit hard. Indianapolis failed to bunch their bingles. Marshall's hitting and Getz's play at third base were the bright spots.

Paskert's single in the ninth inning gave another victory to the Philadelphia club. Boston tied up in the first half on Herzog's three-bagger, which scored two men. Boston had seven errors.

Walter Johnson has the honor of shutting out Boston for the first time of the season on the Boston grounds.

Poor support behind Bailey and hard hitting by the Detroiters have the Tigers an easy victory. Four runs were scored in the ninth inning.

After pitching good ball for eight innings, Cassin filled the bases with two down by wildness. Munk was sent to the rescue and Lima was saved. McClintock hit perfectly in three times at bat.

Ford had the shade on New York in a pitcher's battle and New York won. Johnson, the Yankee's shortstop, made two triples and a single in three times at the bat. He knocked in one run

S.S.S. CURES ALL SKIN DISEASES

Health in its magnificence appeals to everyone, and especially is this true of a clear skin, free from eruptions and disease. We instinctively realize that back of this desirable condition pure, rich blood is flowing through the system, furnishing nutriment to all the tissues.

This perfect condition of the skin exists as long as the blood is normal, but when it becomes contaminated with humors and acids its supply of nutritive properties is greatly lessened, and it becomes a sharp, acrid fluid which diseases instead of preserving the natural health and texture of the skin. Then come Skin Diseases; the character of the eruption depending upon the nature of the humor with which the blood is infected. If there is an excess of acid in the circulation the trouble is characterized by itching and burning eruptions. Other impurities produce watery blisters, rashes, etc., commonly known as Eczema, Tetter, or Salt Rheum, while still other morbid matters in the circulation cause Acne, pimples and like troubles.

It is right and proper to get what relief one may from the application of washes, salves, etc., but such treatment should not be depended upon alone to produce a cure—only a thorough purification of the blood can accomplish this.

S. S. S. cures Skin Diseases of every character and kind, because it purifies the blood. It goes down into the circulation and removes the humors and acids, builds up the weak, acrid blood, and completely cures Eczema, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Acne, pimples, rashes, eruptions, and all skin affections. When S. S. S. has cleansed the blood of the impurities the skin is nourished with rich, cooling blood, the tissues and fibres are strengthened, the pores and glands are stimulated to their full duty, and every symptom passes away. Book on Skin Diseases and any medical advice free. S. S. S. is for sale at drug stores.

and scored the other. Poor baserunning out into the Yankee's scoring line.

Joe Lewis pitched a good game against Portsmouth, but the poor work of the Marion team allowed the Shoemakers to win. This gave Portsmouth the leadership of the league.

H. Cain and Eppler pulled off great catches against Springfield and helped Lancaster defeat the Springfield team. M. Cain, at short, had 10 difficult chances, handling them all cleanly. McKee knocked a home run, the first on the Springfield grounds.

The Indianapolis management is working India at every opportunity and thus far with negative results. It looks as though they were trying to prove his worth or the lack of it. We'll round to yet and make the American Association batmen fear him.

If Springfield and Marion will be today and Newark wins, we will be in it place.

It is with great difficulty that the scores are received promptly from Hamilton and Lancaster. Some of the fans yesterday broke out into a cold sweat over the delay. The final news was welcome news, though.

CIRCUS DRAWS LARGE CROWDS

The Forepaugh and Sells Brothers circus gave two performances on Tuesday at the athletic grounds of the Y. M. C. A. in Eleventh street. Both the matinee and evening show drew immense crowds and each and every one in attendance was pleased. The circus has been on the road but a couple of weeks, and everything is new and this year the offering has been enlarged to such an extent that it is stupendous. Many original features have been added and one of the most amusing bits was the corps of clowns, which this show features.

The menagerie of the Forepaugh-Sells show contains an unusually large number of animals and some of rare species.

It is a poor rule that won't work all ways.

New Tuberculosis Remedy Based on Medicine

To say that a specific exists for the cure of Consumption, in perhaps too strong a statement, but in Eckman's Alternative we have a medicine that has been the means of saving many a life to years of usefulness, and in permanently curing a large number of Consumptives.

Certainly a person afflicted with a wasting disease should be well fed with wholesome, nourishing food, but frequently raw eggs, which cause a digestive breakdown, and then no food nourishes. As for milk, a very good food for many, but a producer of biliousness for some.

Any diet that keeps a Consumptive well nourished is the right one, but what is going to cure the patient? Eckman's Alternative has cured and is curing many a case of Consumption. Let those speak who know. Here is a specimen—to Rochester, N. Y. Gentlemen: "On June 3, 1907, I was operated upon for Tubercular Peritonitis. My weight at the time was 72 lbs.

HOSPITALITY OF CITIZENS WILL BE TESTED

By Hundreds Who Will Flock to Granville to Assist in Celebration of Center Star Lodge.

Granville, O., May 3.—While the arrangements for the Centennial celebration of Center Star Lodge, No. 11, of this place, to be held in a short time, are rapidly nearing completion, it will be well to bear in mind that the hospitality of the citizens of Granville will be tested as it has not been since the big centennial celebration of Granville held in 1905. There will, no doubt be a large crowd here on the big day of the celebration, composed of Masons and their families from all parts of the county to take part in centennial celebration and basket picnic. As the hotel and restaurant accommodations are limited here the basket picnic dinner has been planned for the accommodation of visitors. This was done in Mt. Vernon last year at Mt. Zion's centennial and proved popular, and was the only way to have accommodated the big gathering. So bring the family and the basket.

Mrs. Edna McDaniels Kemper, ex-'09, who has been spending some time with old Granville friends, expects to make a short visit with her parents in Gallipolis, O., before returning to her home in Chicago. Mr. and Mrs. Kemper are enjoying their work in Chicago and expect in a few weeks to enter the new bungalow which they are building.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Freeman of Marion, O., who have been visiting relatives and friends in and around Granville for the past two weeks, left for their home Tuesday, having had a most enjoyable visit.

The coming Musical Festival to be held in Granville promises to be the greatest event of the kind ever held in Granville, and Newark and Granville lovers of music are living in anticipation of a rare treat. The program for the first concert, which is to be held on Thursday evening, May 18th at 8:15 o'clock, has been completed. Miss Benedict will be the organist in an opening Festival march. Two of the visiting artists will be here, Emil Sturme, the young Dresden violinist, and Walter Bentley Hall of New York, baritone. Mr. Hall has just been engaged and will be a welcome addition to the corps of soloists. Both glee clubs will also be heard in standard
